

Between Architecture and Building Services Engineering: Answering the Climate in the Modern Age's Construction History

Spazio Aperto DAStU, via Bonardi, 9 – Edificio 14 “Nave”, 20133 Milano

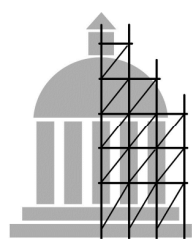

mercoledì 28 maggio 2014
Wednesday, May 28th, 2014

- 10.30 Opening
Alberto Grimoldi, Head of Graduate School in Architectural and Landscape Heritage
- 11.00 Tradition and Science: the evolution of environmental architecture from 16th to 19th century
Dean Hawkes, Emeritus Professor, Cardiff University; Emeritus Fellow, Darwin College, University of Cambridge
- 11.50 What were the real functions of Houses of Parliament's ventilation towers?
Henrik Schoenefeldt, Associate Professor, School of Architecture, University of Kent
- 12.40 Lunch time
- 14.20 Central Heating Systems in France through several Examples
Emmanuelle Gallo, Research fellow in history of architecture and technology, Ecole Nationale Supérieure de Paris Belleville
- 15.10 Applying Actor-Network-Theory to the history of indoor climate control technology
Mattias Legnér, Full Professor in Conservation, Department of Art History Uppsala University Campus Gotland, Visby
- 16.00 Question time

POLITECNICO DI MILANO

DIPARTIMENTO DI
ARCHITETTURA E
STUDI URBANI

SCUOLA DI SPECIALIZZAZIONE
IN BENI ARCHITETTONICI E DEL PAESAGGIO

Dottorato in Conservazione
dei Beni Architettonici